THE FARM FRONT

BY DOYLE CONNER
COMMISSIONER
FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

I've been following with considerable interest the reports in various farm and trade journals concerning radical new developments and methods in livestock production.

The latest to come to my attention is a "pork factory" described in a full page ad in the April issue of the National Hog Farmer. If this sort of a hog production facility should take hold in a big way throughout the hog and corn belt, I can visualize swine production developing somewhat along the lines of the present "broiler factory" which has revolutionized the poultry business in recent years.

Like other modern equipment that has enabled our American farmers to greatly increase production, the "pork factory" is going to increase the investment required to raise hogs by this method. However, if the results justify the necessary capital outlay, I expect to see progressive hog raisers going into this type of operation on a large scale.

"Pork Factory" buildings are offered in two sizes, one 62 feet long with space for 288 finished hogs, and one 92 feet long for 432 finished hogs. The pens have slotted floors, the latest thing, by the way, in sanitary engineering for more efficient livestock quarters. The building has controlled temperature and ventilation, automatic feeding and watering, with manure disposal through the slotted floors.

The use of slotted floors for beef animals was being researched last year at the San Juan Basin experiment station of Colorado State University, and for lambs at Virginia Polytechnic Institute which has been getting two crops of lambs a year. Both experiments appeared to be very successful.

Interest in slotted floors has become so great in the corn belt that materials and equipment suppliers are offering both wood and metal shapes for their construction.

At the University of Illinois a 113-day study showed a big labor saving where slotted floors are used in a swine building. The slotted floor required only 1 1/4 minutes a day for cleaning, compared with 17 minutes a day for cleaning a hard-surface floor. However, at the end of the 113-day test, one full 8-hour day was devoted to cleaning under the slats. Even so, the daily average was raised to only 5 1/2 minutes.

I'm expecting to hear one of these days that one of our enterprising Florida cattlemen has started a feeding operation similar to one which has produced startling results out in Texas.

As reported in a recent issue of Farm Journal, the Spur, Texas, Experiment Station is providing that you don't need grazing land for a successful cow-calf operation. After three years of testing, their cows and calves in a drylot are doing better than those on the range.

When you think of what it would cost today to acquire sufficient land to get into the cattle business in the conventional manner with adequate grazing acreage, you can see the advantage of a drylot for beef cows.

Compared with the range method, the Texas drylot report shows: a higher percent calf crop; heavier calves at weaning; improved breeding efficiency; control of feed supply; more flexibility for expansion, and less capital investment.

There is one problem, however. Someone has to be on hand 365 days a year to feed those cows.

Sometimes automation and control by computers can be carried too far.

I note a report from Nice, France, that a super market there has had to abandon a plan to have customers take a punched card with each item they selected. The cards provided detailed information on sale, tax, stock, and margin for management.

The store management liked the system but the customers rebelled. Too much time was required to run the cards through tabulation at the checkout counter.

Many More Phone Books Distributed

The growth of the Belle Glade-Pahokee communities can be measured by the large increase in the number of telephone directories being distributed this week to local subscribers.

Approximately 6,580 new directories are going to homes and businesses, according to Pete McClellan, manager for Southern Bell Telephone Co., compared with 5,850 when the last directory was delivered.

The new directory has many new and changed listings and other helpful telephone information. It is easily distinguishable from the old blue covered telephone book by its green cover.

Mr. McClellan asks that all old directories be discarded, and the new one referred to when looking up telephone numbers. You should call information only when the number you want is not in the new directory.

After April 15, 1963, dial "113" for information rather than "Operator".

Forest Hill Wins Eleven Straight

Unbeaten Forest Hill, now win of 11 straight this spring, has a firm two-game grip on the leadership of the Suncoast conference with the season three-fifths departed, and what serious rivals the Falcons have left may well be eliminated in this week's nine-game league schedule.

The Falcons visit last-place Clewiston on Tuesday's six-game card and then call on runner up Riviera Friday afternoon. Riviera hosts Pahokee Tuesday before Friday's crucial test. Forest Hill dumped Riviera in a non-counting tilt a fortnight ago and two more successes this week will virtually lock up the pennant.

Ft. Pierce and defending champ Lake Worth also are two games back of the Falcons and still entertaining title hopes, but two defeats each already make these hopes rather faint. Lake Worth entertains twice this week, facing Stuart Tuesday and Seacrest Friday. Neither will be easy. Ft. Pierce hosts tough Palm Beach

Tuesday, then goes to unpredictable Stuart Friday.

Other games Tuesday have Seacrest at Vero, and Belle Glade at non-league Jupiter. Also Friday Clewiston is at Palm Beach and Cocoa comes to Vero. Vero will visit Melbourne Saturday.

Forest Hill choked off Belle Glade's pennant notions with a 3-2 comeback win last Tuesday, and the squelched Rams then folded 11-2 at Lake Worth Thursday. Riviera took second place with a 11-1 romp over Clewiston Tuesday and Ft. Pierce whipped the same club Thursday 3-0. Lake Worth preceded Thursday's victory with a 5-0 decision at Pahokee Tuesday to keep in the contention. Seacrest escaped the basement with a 1-0 thriller over Palm Beach.

Standings today:

| | W | L | Pct. |
|---------------|---|---|-------|
| Forest Hill | 6 | 0 | 1.000 |
| Riviera Beach | 3 | 1 | .750 |
| Ft. Pierce | 4 | 2 | .667 |
| Lake Worth | 4 | 2 | .667 |
| Belle Glade | 4 | 4 | .500 |
| Stuart | 3 | 3 | .500 |
| Vero Beach | 3 | 3 | .500 |
| Palm Beach | 2 | 3 | .400 |
| Seacrest | 1 | 3 | .250 |
| Pahokee | 1 | 4 | .200 |
| Clewiston | 1 | 7 | .125 |

"Today we need a nation of Minute Men citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life"

—JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

10 days after his inauguration
as the 35th President of the United States.

Twenty years ago, in the dark, uneasy days before Pearl Harbor, the Minute Man of Concord, timeless symbol of our Nation's determination to defend its freedom, emerged as the emblem of the U. S. Savings Bonds Program. When war came, the Minute Man became the rallying force behind the huge and overwhelmingly successful effort to back our fighting men with War Bonds.

In this, the 20th anniversary year of Savings Bonds, the Minute Man of Concord calls all Americans to an unremitting effort to help preserve our peace and freedom, threatened by forces more powerful and resourceful than those we faced in 1941. Though this effort will take many forms, one way open to all is the continued investment in Shares in America, U. S. Savings Bonds, by "citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life."

For 20 years America's newspapers have published Savings Bonds ads at no cost to the Government. The Treasury Dept. is grateful to The Advertising Council and this newspaper for their patriotic support.

IF WEEDS HOLD DOWN YOUR PROFITS ON CANE - SEE THIS!

—South Bay Growers Sugar Cane Field on Rabbit Island.

This year, many of your friends are trying Randox and Randox 2, 4-D for chemical weed cultivation. The reason is simple—weeds in sugar cane have become a costly, critical problem in the face of rising costs for labor and other needs—RANDOX AND RANDOX 2, 4-D ARE OFFERING THE MOST PROMISING CURE OF ALL AVAILABLE PRODUCTS.

Best of all, in every single instance where applied correctly, and where the need for rain was met within a reasonable length of time, both Randox and Randox plus 2, 4-D have worked. There are instances where Randox plus 2, 4-D, applied last October, has produced fields that are exceptionally clean and where cane already is closing over with no weeds . . . No mechanical cultivations to cost $12 or more per acre plus overhead . . . No field hands to make decisions on your crop as they chop out the bad (and sometimes the good) at a cost of $11 to $75 per acre.

But, look for yourself, at the good . . . The "commercially" profitable control . . . and, yes, at the only "fair" control which was obtained in a few instances.

A special work: Randox chemicals are strong for it takes a powerful chemical to do the job. Randox irritates—But, anyone capable of handling any precision chemical will find little difficulty in handling Randox. Read the directions. Follow them for best results. Or, if you have any questions, check your experiment station, your Monsanto field man, Juan Roque or your local Monsanto Dealer.

About cost: Randox plus 2, 4-D cost about $17.45 per acre. Compare it with a minimum of $12 for mechanical cultivations, plus overhead . . . From $11 to $75 per acre for the "Decision Makers" to chop out the crop. Also, you will be interested to know that one test already has shown a 1/2 point gain in sucrose (worth $12) on Randox-treated cane. Another test showed a 3 1/2 ton gain on cut cane tonnage.

BUT—SEE FOR YOURSELF.

Great Masterpiece Cuts Admission

LAKE WALES — The Great Masterpiece, popular tourist attraction of Lake Wales, has slashed admittance charges to take advantage of the coming summer tourist season.

"With the summer months now providing the greatest influx of tourists to the state," announced Kenneth A. Curtis, president and general manager of the Great Masterpiece, "we are establishing a summer rate plan that will be particularly attractive to families. We now have the lowest rates of any major attraction and we are looking forward to a great increase in activity."

Recent figures provided by the Florida Development Commission revealed the fact that July is the most popular month of the year in regard to total tourist influx in the Sunshine State.

Admission to The Great Masterpiece was reduced from $1.75 to $1.35. Children 12 to 18 will be admitted for 50 cents, while all under 12 will be admitted free.

A charge of 50c per person for rides on the Swiss Cable Car, which swings above the attraction's gardens, has also been reduced to 10 cents. Admittance to the Mosaic of Tile, Birds of Prey, Howell Glassblowers and other exhibitors will be free.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Friend and daughter, Merry, will attend the graduation exercises at Florida State University, Tallahassee, on Saturday, when their daughter, Miss Cyndy Friend, will receive her degree.

Money Fish Staying Out Of Reach

TAMPA — The big money fish in the Schlitz 1963 Florida Fishing Derby have managed so far to stay out of hook's reach, but fish with smaller tag values have bit to the tune of $11,641.

The big ones will have to keep wily to avoid capture, however, because the derby still has 50 days to run in Zones 1 and 2 (through May 31), and over 3½ months in Zone 3 (through July 31). The derby will run in Zone 4 May 1-August 31.

Zone 1 (southwest Florida) leads in awards with $6,715, followed by Zone 2 (southeast Florida) $3,600, and Zone 3 (central Florida) $1,326. Top award fish to date has been the $100 class, of which 12 have been brought in. The $10,000 in each of the operating zones and the considerable number of $1,000 fish have escaped being caught.

To the two state fish agencies cooperating with Schlitz in operation of the derby, one of the most gratifying aspects of the 1963 derby has been the large return of "old" fish—fish released in the 1961 and 1962 Schlitz derbies. During the course of the derby in each zone, "old" fish catches are worth at least $25 each, while a number of old tags have been designated for $500 Special Conservation awards. One fish carrying a special $500 award has been taken, in Zone 2. The fish was a sheephead released in February, 1962, caught by Robert T. Glennon of Port Salerno off the Jupiter Island Causeway on the Atlantic coast.

All told, 66 fish from the 1961 and 1962 derbies have been brought in to Schlitz wholesalers. Of these, 43 were worth $25 each, while 22 caught prior to zone openings were redeemed at $3 each. Total of all tagged catches is 424 fish.

Of 200 King Mackerel (king-fish) released this year in a special first-time tagging operation in the Florida Keys by the State Board of Conservation under the Schlitz program, one specimen has been recaptured, in the Homestead area.
